FIRST SUNDAY of ADVENT    YEAR A    Ps1    30th November, 2025 (Pg82)

This Sunday we begin the season Advent, a term that comes from the Latin “Adventus” or “advenire,” which means “arrival” or “to come” respectively. Advent marks the beginning of the Church’s liturgical calendar. It is a four-week period leading up to Christmas. This year introduces us to Year A of the Liturgical calendar.

For us Christians, and Catholics in particular, Advent means a time of expectation and preparation for the Lord’s coming. So, the prophecy of John the Baptist: “A voice of one calling in the desert, prepare a way for the Lord” (Mk 1, 3), echoes loudly to us this season. At this time, we can expect mercy and liberation because our Lord, the King of the Universe, whose solemnity we celebrated last Sunday, comes to reign over his people. So, the Church gives us this time to meditate on our life and try our best to be good and to do good to our neighbour by avoiding greed, licentiousness, inordinate ambitions, and anger, as well as to prevent malice, backbiting, gossip, abortion, drunkenness, immodesty, and all sorts of vices.

Therefore, in this season of Advent, we have to not only prepare but also to equip ourselves with good virtues and to always be ready as “the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect.” (Mt 24:44)

CONFESIONS St Patrick: Saturday after 10.00 Mass
Holy Cross: Saturday before 5.30pm Mass

Archbishop John’s Advent 2025 reflection. This Advent, Archbishop John is calling us to reflect on the “astonishing truth” that the “Lord Jesus is, and always will be, Emmanuel: God with us, God beside us, God within us”. In a video reflection, Archbishop John said that: “to say God is with us is not poetry but power. It means that the Lord Jesus stepped into our humanity so that we might step into his divinity. It means that God is no distant deity, but one who draws near; who shares our joys and carries our sorrows; who opens heaven to earth, and earth to heaven”. You can watch his full reflection at rcaos.org.uk/advent2025.
