THIRD SUNDAY of ADVENT YEAR A Ps3 14th December, 2025 (Pg88)

This Sunday is Gaudete Sunday, the Latin word for “rejoice” and takes its name from the opening antiphon: ‘Rejoice in the Lord always, again I say rejoice, indeed, the Lord is near.’ Thus, as we come closer to the feast of Christmas, the Church encourages us to rejoice because God is about to fulfil his promise to us. However, this does not mean we have come to the end of our preparation for this season of Advent. Instead, it is a way of urging us to be more focused and courageous. It is also a way of assuring us that our preparations shall soon be rewarded.

Today, all our readings exhort us to be happy and joyful as we wait for the Lord’s coming. The Gospel of today expresses this topic of rejoicing at the imminent coming of the Lord. John the Baptist’s disciples ask Jesus if He is the one who is to come. ‘Look around you’, they are told. ‘The blind receive their sight, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, the Good News is proclaimed to the poor and happy are those who believe.’ These events really are a cause for rejoicing; the Lord has come and is working miracles among us; our salvation is at hand. Let us praise God on this Gaudete Sunday. Let us thank Him for all he has done for us. We rejoice that, through the coming of his Son Jesus, we have been saved. We do what we can to imitate his life, to follow his Gospel of love. We join together to celebrate the Eucharist, sharing the bread that is His body and the wine that is His blood. We take seriously his plea to the Father: ‘May they be one, Father, even as you and I are one.’

Archbishop John's Advent 2025 reflection. This Advent, Archbishop John is calling us to reflect on the "astonishing truth" that the "Lord Jesus is, and always will be, Emmanuel: God with us, God beside us, God within us". In a video reflection, Archbishop John said that: "to say God is with us is not poetry but power. It means that the Lord Jesus stepped into our humanity so that we might step into his divinity. It means that God is no distant deity, but one who draws near; who shares our joys and carries our sorrows; who opens heaven to earth, and earth to heaven". You can watch his full reflection at rcaos.org.uk/advent2025.
